

2023 was filled with beautiful and challenging moments. We are so grateful to have joy in our hearts and smiles on our faces because God continues to love, protect, and keep us! We are His and He is ours!

Our happy place

Activities, Adventures and Special Moments

January - February

The two basketball coaches in the family finished their seasons of coaching. Jaden with the Augusta Eagles and Priscilla with Warren Sports Athletics. Following the season both coaches decided to take a break the upcoming season!

March

We took the girls on their first cruise - actually we tagged along with Abigail and her friend on their cruise! We had a ball!

A nephew was added to our family. Congratulations James and Makieva.

April

Johnathan and I took a business trip to Mexico

May - June

Abigail graduated from High School (graduation photos taken by her brother Jaden, the aspiring photographer). Family and friends showed out to support our girl. She performed her last dance recital with Art In Motion Dance Studio.

June Princeton proposed to his girlfriend, Mizan! We are planning a wedding!

Our dear grandfather James Sr. went home to be with the Lord! We honor his life as a faithful servant of the Lord!

July - We celebrated our 24th anniversary in Jamaica!

August - September

Abigail started school at Augusta Tech in the Early Childhood Childhood program and started a new job at a child development center.

We traveled with the girls to Turks and Caicos with family for Kevin (Johnathan's brother) and Kia's vow renewal.

Laylah celebrated her 11th birthday on the Island!

Oh and we splurged for them to fly first class for the first time!

Johnathan and Priscilla attended New Room conference in Houston. Powerful!

October - December

Johnathan and Priscilla attended the CFX conference in Dallas as an exhibitor and taught a breakout session.

Jaden had the privilege of visiting Chick-Fil-A headquarters.

Priscilla was a part of Freedom Conference as a panalist, hosted in Charlotte hosted! My girls joined me.

Other Highlights

Birthday Celebrations

Baby shower celebration

Celebrating with Pastors Holmes' and their 10 years of ministry

SCSU Homecoming with friends and family!

Fall soccer season in full effect for Laylah with the Bulls organization.